

MARTFŰ FUTURE FILM FESTIVAL 2013

Documentaries of the rural world

We are expecting productions from artists, creative communities, televisions!

International film festival

Martfű (Hungary), 24-27th October, 2013.

Films that can be nominated: documentaries or TV reports made after 2008, on the topic of rural life and the future of the rural world. We expect above all films that are exploring answers or presenting best practices related to the economy, society and ecology of the rural world.

There is no limitation regarding the duration or the artistic conception of the works. The prize winners' films will be shown in Brussels on the occasion of the session of the Consultative group on Agriculture and Rural development on the 25-26th November, 2013.

Categories of the festival that will be awarded:

1. New practices, possibilities in ecology and environment
2. New practices in rural tourism
3. Preserving traditions and rural values
4. Creating jobs and social work in the rural world
5. Films showing national specialties

Technical criteria: the nominated films should be uploaded on the ftp space of the festival, possibly in HD definition (720i, 720p, 1080i, 1080p). SD materials can be submitted to the organisers on CD too.

Admission: on the annexed electronic registration form, also available on the website and the facebook profile of the festival.
